The Backpacker's Field Manual: A Comprehensive Guide to Mastering Backcountry Skills, by Rick Curtis

A pre-course assignment is required for completion prior to the course date.

You are required to bring the following items on the day of the course:
Your backpack full of items that you would take with you if your were leading a Wilderness Day Hike including a whistle, a survival kit and a compass (if you are purchasing a compass choose one with adjustable declination). Hiking poles are recommended.

The course is located on private property in an off-grid cabin with no water access or facilities to heat food. The cabin is heated by a wood stove. We will be outside for a large portion of the day. Please dress in layers and be prepared for wet weather. You are responsible to pack a nutritious lunch, snacks and water for the day.

A Hike Ontario and Thames Valley Trail Association Waiver of Liability are required to enter the course site property.

Course payment of $85.00 is required along with this completed application form to secure you space in the course. A receipt will be provided on the course date. Refunds will be managed in accordance with Hike Ontario policies.
